

Messner's Seven Summits

The Seven Summits represent the highest peak on each continent. While there is some disagreement due to differences of perspective on mountain locations on continents, world-renowned explorer and mountaineer Reinhold Messner defines the summits as depicted.

